AscendEX and BitMart onboard TRAXX token ahead of Token||Traxx token sale on Monday

London, United Kingdom; 18th March, 2022:

Token||Traxx has announced primary listings for its TRAXX token on two leading trading platforms.

AscendEX and BitMart have onboarded the music NFT marketplace's TRAXX ahead of the public token sale on Monday, 21st March.

The TRAXX token will be used to pay transaction fees for NFTs purchased on the platform. They will also provide holders with additional benefits on the platform and will be used as an incentive for a Token||Traxx rewards program. More utility functions will be added as the platform grows.

The Token||Traxx BETA marketplace will open on 28th March, a week after the TRAXX token sale. The beta will be open access for the Token||Traxx community to explore the platform ahead of the main launch later this year.

“For the TRAXX token to be supported by such strong and growing partners in AscendEX and BitMart gives further validation that Token||Traxx is set to become a major player in this space. Token||Traxx and Sors Digital Assets are delighted that the TRAXX token has been onboarded by these credible and trusted trading platforms and look forward to long and prosperous relationships with them both,” said Brian Elders, CFO of Token||Traxx.

“Across all industries, we believe in a digital future. Independent artists are taking over the music industry from large record labels, and platforms like Token||Traxx will continue to help them succeed,” added a spokesperson from AscendEX.

Trading will begin under the trading pair (TRAXX/USDT) from 1pm UTC on March 21st 2022.
